

Daddy, Goodbye Blues

Left my man this morning
Standing in the door
When I got back
I said I don't want you no more
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

He always tells
I ain't treatin' her right
Her man going out from you
Stayin' out all day all night
I said goodbye, daddy goodbye

That man wrote me a letter
Said momma please come home
When I got home last night
Found my man had gone
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

Ain't got no body to tell my trouble to
Lay down in my bed tryin' to hold out without you
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

Oh, goodbye daddy
Daddy please tell me goodbye
If ever you goin' want me daddy
Momma surely lay down and die
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye
