Left my man this morning
Standing in the door
When I got back
I said I don't want you no more
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

He always tells
I ain't treatin' her right
Her man going out from you
Stayin' out all day all night
I said goodbye, daddy goodbye

That man wrote me a letter
Said momma please come home
When I got home last night
Found my man had gone
Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

Ain't got no body to tell my trouble to Lay down in my bed tryin' to hold out without you Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye

Oh, goodbye daddy Daddy please tell me goodbye If ever you goin' want me daddy Momma surely lay down and die Goodbye, goodbye, daddy goodbye
