

I Lost My Crystal Ball

Allison Moorer

My feet feel like two stones
I walk this road alone
Ain't got no way to know
Where I'm supposed to go

I lost my crystal ball
Found me a wrecking ball
I lost my crystal ball
It ain't hard to see
It's made a wreck of me

I tore the whole thing down
Watched it as it hit the ground
It didn't even make a sound
I wish I could turn it around

I lost my crystal ball
Found me a wrecking ball
I lost my crystal ball
It ain't hard to see
It's made a wreck of me

Oh fortune teller can't you tell me
A little bit of what I will be
Fortune teller what do you see
Lately nothing's coming easy

I lost my crystal ball
Found me a wrecking ball
I lost my crystal ball
It ain't hard to see
It's made a wreck of me
