I'm Looking For Blue Eyes

Allison Moorer

I'm looking for blue eyes Has anyone seen him Don't you tell me He gave up on me I'm looking for blue eyes I've got to find him Cause something tells me He's looking for me

There was a time when blue eyes said he'd love no other His one and only love he swore I'd be There was a time when his blue eyes saw clearer than mine did Storms and rain, tears and pain, bring me back his way

Looking for blue eyes Has anyone seen him No don't you tell me He gave up on me I'm looking for blue eyes I've got to find him Cause something tells me He's looking for me

I'm looking for blue eyes Has anyone seen him
