

Mama Let the Wolf In

Allison Moorer

Baby I'm sorry
I didn't see him coming
He was just around the corner
Now he's got us running
We could hide in a closet
But I know he's gonna find us
Because I forget to lock it
And shout out defeat's behind us

Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Oh no

A little bit of bad luck
Lord knows we're getting wanted
A little bit of short straw had our names written on it
He could have gone next door to pillage and plunder
But he don't ask permission
Big bad motherfucker

Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Oh no

Run baby run baby run baby run away
You're the one he's got and I'll do anything to take your place
I shot a silver bullet now there's nothing left to do but pray

Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Mama let the wolf in
Oh no

Baby I'm sorry
Baby I'm sorry
Ooh baby I'm sorry
Oh no
