

Once Upon A Time She Said

Allison Moorer

Just getting by is getting old
Locked up inside this pigeonhole
Breaking my back with my bare hands
Some of us cant some of us can

I dont have it in me
A bullet needs a gun
And in the land of plenty
They need a champion
Im one more of many
Not a lion on the sun

Been hanging round and holding on
Here underground way too long
Losing my mind digging for gold
All I can find as life unfolds is

I dont have it in me
A bullet needs a gun
And in the land of plenty
They need a champion
Im one more of many
Not a lion in the sun

Its unpopular
To be unpopular
Its unpopular
To be unpopular

Isnt it sad?
The ending wont be a happy one
Im one more of many
Not a lion in the sun
