

You'll Never Know

Allison Moorer

Sometimes I don't know if should even talk at all Words just fall to pieces banging up against the wall
They don't ever come out right now matter how much I try Then inside I'm screaming 'cause I can't seem to find a way
I can say what I feel inside
I don't want to hide the things I need to tell you
I stumble so out in my throat
I guess you'll never know.

If I could I'd plant a seed and make a blossom grow Lets colors flow around you and maybe they would show you the way
To my world and what I feel inside.

I don't want to hide and the things I need to tell you
I stumble so out in my throat
I guess you'll never know.

What I feel inside
I don't want to hide
The things I need to tell you
I stumble so out in my throat
I'll guess you'll never know
