Hiding in back and never making a sound
If you don't speak your thoughts
They can't be turned around
Cause, You lead a targeted youth
Can't find the courage to leave your shell yet
Finding short term courage in a flask
Another wasted day you're never getting back
Cause, You lead a targeted youth
Who only talks to a certain few
Can't find the courage to leave your shell yet
Torn apart and...
Camouflaged in the background and holding things deep
Never showing your true self to the kids you meet
Finding shade in imagination
One more day forgotten to the world
Hiding in back and never making a sound
If you don't speak your thoughts
They can't be turned around
Cause, You lead a targeted youth
Who only talks to a certain few
Can't find the courage to leave your shell yet
Torn apart and...
Camouflaged in the background and holding things deep
Never showing your true self to the kids you meet
Finding shade in imagination
