

Know It All

Allister

Well you think you know it all
You think that you deserve the best, but I've got news for you
Your bullshit smile can't pass this test
Cause there's somethin that I've wanted to say I've wanted to say to you, woah
I've been waiting to say to you, woah for so long
This time I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
This time I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
Now I get sick of listening to your whining and your cries Cause you may have found success, but you still living out the lie
Now I can't wait fot the day that you will burn out and fade away, woah
You'll burn out and fade away from the world (woah)
This time I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
This time I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
Why can't I understand your superficial views (woah), but I can understand I can't take much more of you?
Fuck you, I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
Fuck you, I'm ready
I'm ready for somethin new
