

Well I think the time has come to tell you how I feel about everything thats been inside my mind since the day we crossed the line into this real life fantasy cause I poured my heart into the last 3 years of wondering what I should do
should I cash the check and trade in what I thought I knew your promises don't help to make it easier Cause the last thing that I need is somebody like you to push me around and tell me what to do I know theres a time and place where you can call the shots but it't not here
Cause I poured my heart into
the last 3 years of wondering
what I should do
Because the last thing that I need is somebody like you
I know theres a time and place where you can call the shots
but it't not here
Cause I think this whole life is just overrated this whole life is too complicated this whole life is just overrated now this whole life is just overrated
this whole life is just overrated now I don't remember what you said to me that night so I just signed the dotted line Cause now I find out this whole life is just overrated this whole life is too complicated
this whole life is just overrated now
