

Every Hungry Woman

The Allman Brothers Band

Yeah, sad eyed woman
Boogie 'til the break of dawn
Yeah, long a-bout the break of day, yeah
Oh, your man has up and gone
You got 13 lovely children
No proud father knocking at your door
Yeah, but every hungry woman
Has been in your place before
Yeah, the doctor keep calling
Woah, found you'd fallen
Yeah, you backed him in the corner
Oh, you're doing what you wanna
You got 14 lovely children
No proud father knocking at your door
Yeah, but every hungry woman
Has been in your place before
You got 15 lovely children
No proud father knocking at your door
Yeah, but every hungry woman
Has been in your place before
Yeah, the doctor keep calling
Woah, found you'd fallen
Yeah, you backed him in the corner
Oh, you're doing what you wanna
You got 16 lovely children
No proud father knocking at your door
Yeah, but every hungry woman
Has been in your place before
Oh, yeah
Sad eyed woman
Ohhhh
