Amy

Allstar Weekend

Set on this girl and I just can't show it. I'm taking my time 'cause I don't wanna blow it, But I can't get her out of my mind. She looks one way and I look another. All my friends say "Please, don't bother." But I can't see the truth when I'm blind. I know it's real The older that I get, The less that I regret, And baby, it's 'cause of you. Since the day we met, You know I won't forget, That baby, my aim is true. Oh Amy, A-A-Amy You've changed my life. Oh Amy, A-A-Amy You make everything All right A-A-Amv She smiles like a new sunrise. Her funny laugh was so surprising, But I can't get her off of my mind. She lights up a room like a full moon shining. I try to look cool, But she's not buying 'Cause girls like these are so hard to find. I know it's real The older that I get, The less that I regret, And baby, it's 'cause of you. Since the day we met, You know I won't forget, That baby, my aim is true. Oh Amy, A-A-Amy You've changed my life. Oh Amy, A-A-Amy You make everything All right Now I've made up my mind, And I'll move mountains to be with you. I'm done taking my time, And in the end, I always knew (Always knew) Always knew The older that I get, The less that I regret, And baby, it's 'cause of you.

Since the day we met, You know I won't forget, That baby, my aim is true.

```
Oh Amy, A-A-Amy
You make everything all right.
Oh Amy, A-A-Amy
You've changed my life.
Amy, A-A-Amy
You make everything
All right
```
