

Catching Up

Allstar Weekend

Wake up
Hear the same thing
My alarm rings
Screamin the same time
In the same place
Im walking the same way
Im afraid
Its always Groundhogs Day

I always say
Why dont you do something about it?
Why not?
Today could be the day

Im not hanging out
Talking bout what I want
No fun sitting here
Thinking maybe next year
I dont wanna be
Lookin back at twenty three
Sayin to myself,
Got a lot of catching up to do

Ive got big dreams
Dreaming big things
Interrupted
My alarm rings
Until now cause
I wont hear it
I wont take it
I cant stay anymore

I always say
Why dont you do something about it?
Why not?
Today could be the day

Im not hanging out
Talking bout what I want
No fun sitting here
Thinking maybe next year
I dont wanna be
Looking back at twenty-three
Sayin to myself
Got a lot of catching up to do

Say goodbye to the couldve been
Say goodbye to the shouldve made that one work
Say goodbye to just sittin around
I always say it
Its time to really mean it

I always say
Why dont you do something about it?
Why not?
Today could be the day

Im not hanging out
Talking bout what I want
No fun sitting here
Thinking maybe next year
I dont wanna be
Lookin back at 23
Sayin to myself
Theres so much left to do
(Ive got a lot of catching up to do)
So much left for me to do
(Ive got a lot of catching up to do)
So much left for me to do
(Ive got a lot of catching up to do)
I've got a thousand things I wanna do
