

The Story

Allure

Oh, no, no, no, no, oh
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, oh

He was a memory I can't erase
Like a dream come true from out of the night
When I first saw you our eyes met face to face
I knew right then and there that it would be right

- Just when I thought I was over love
Baby you stepped right into my life
Will we be lovers or just the best of friends
Or will the story just come to an end

Was I just a victim of circumstance
Or just a fool who fell too quickly in love
But when I saw you, there was someone else
And I knew that I could not
Could not be - Not be second best
No, no, no, no, no

Momma told me when a boy meets girl

That you see rainbows, stars shining in your world

But when it's over the writing's on the wall
Don't you keep cryin' no, no
Just keep on
Just keep moving on
