You're Gonna Love Me

Allure

When I'm alone in my room
Fantasies run through my mind
And I've come to realize that
I need someone
And if you wanna be that someone
I'll be naked

Nowadays things aren't always what they seem
Even in my wildest dreams I couldn't have you
Things you say always make me go insane
Wondering if I am the blame it's a shame

You're gonna love me someday
Better make sure it's not too late

Every night I sit down and think about
Why I never had a doubt about us
But, I was wrong thinking our love was strong
Thinking we could still hold on, but it's gone, hey yeah

You're gonna love me someday
Better make sure it's not too late

I told you once that I really cared
And my love I want to share
But you don't see that it's really me, I'm what you need
And I guarantee that

You're gonna love me
Someday
Just like I told you
Now it's too late

All I need is a man
To be true

You're gonna love me someday
Better make sure it's not too late

You're gonna love me someday
Better make sure it's not too late

Ad lib until fade
