Almora

It was so long years ago i have lost all my hopes at the war all of my dreams are lost in my heart and in my soul in the island with the sunrise the darkness has captured the light all the children have slept forever and flew to the heaven in the sky can you feel the pain in my heart?

can you give back my fallen stars?
all of my tears are still in my eyes.
can you feel my broken heart?
