

Glory Of Time

Almora

Time marching on and you grow old slowly
Life still goes on, and you just watching this story
You were a hero yesterday
But nothing and nothing today

Night's coming down, anger and pain in dark
Feel that you're destiny's slave

You're falling down, anger and pain in dark
Feel that your soul fading in time

When lights are changing to dark
You'll face to mystery of life
You will see destiny's sign
On terrible mirror

When candles are fadin'
It's the end of the lightning rain
You will see sign of your pain
On terrible mirror

It's the glory of time

Time marching on; youth flow between your hands
Life still goes on, destiny rules your fate
You were an idol yesterday
But nothing and nothing today

Night's coming down, anger and pain in dark
Feel that you're destiny's slave

You're falling down, anger and pain in dark
Feel that your soul fading in time

When lights are changing to dark
You'll face to mystery of life
You will see destiny's sign
On terrible mirror

When candles are fadin'
It's the end of the lightning rain
You will see sign of your pain
On terrible mirror

It's the glory of time
