

Hands Of Destiny

Almora

Hey! look in the mirror of time and tell me what you see can you see your fading life tell me what you see is your life between your hands? and your time marches on no more time for think of past cause your life still goes on your life is fading away your soul is fading away you have to think about your life where is light? anywhere anywhere you have to look into the sky where is sun? anywhere anywhere
