

No Turning Back

Almora

All of our dreams never and never will change
Full of our force never and never will fade
Scream of the life as call of love and the hate
No turning back;let's fight for our magic land
Let's run to the wonderfull land
Hand to hand and here we're stand
Hand to hand and here we're stand
As you know;no turning back
No turning back!

All of our faith never and never will change
Full of our force never and never will fade
Cry of the wind as call of freedom and praid
No turning back let's fight for our magic land
Let's run to the wonderful land
Hand to hand and here we're stand
Hand to hand and here we're stand
As you know;no turning back
No turning back!
