

Princess of Rain

Almora

I close my eyes in the silence of the night
I hear your voice in the whisper of the rain in my heart

I think of thousands of dark rainy nights
I dream of your face among the lightning flashes in the sky

My steel-rose, give me your light
All i need is you
Hear the cry of my heart

Give me the scent of your rain
Touch my tears and kill my pain

Send me an angel for luck from your heart
Give me your rain
Forever, princess of rain
Forever, princess of rain
