

Rage of the Falcon

Almora

Never obey the rules of them
Trust your feeling only
You hear the silent cry inside you

Your courage will never fade
Trust you mind and your heart
You feel the lonely child inside you

Your darkness will turn to light
Trust yourself and never yield
You feel the rage and the force in your heart

Your courage will change your fate
Trust your mind and your heart
You feel the lonely fire inside you

Show them your hate
Show them your faith
Show them your courage
And show them your rage

Keep you alive
Always survive
Show them your courage
And rage of falcon in you

Never obey the rules of them
Trust your feeling only
You hear the silent cry inside you

Your courage will never fade
Trust you mind and your heart
You feel the lonely child inside you

Show them your hate
Show them your faith
Show them your courage
And show them your rage

Keep you alive
Always survive
Show them your courage
And rage of falcon in you
