

Rendez-Vous

Alpha Blondy

When the night, all right
And the full moon light shinning so bright
Don't go away, please stay
My love for you so strong
We just can't go wrong
Tears in your eyes, you can't deny
You've been crying, crying all along the day
Tears in your eyes can't lie
Stop crying, crying before it gets too late

Barbozi, Barboza
Rendez-vous tonight at Barboza

Yes, I know that your first love hurt you so
I wish my love could heal your broken heart
And if you want tomorrow to be a brighter day
Now! oh Lord love me the way you love no one else
Love me the way you love no one else
I beg you love me the way you love no one else
