

Blue Autumn

Alpha

It happens when you're gone
The place you lay still warm
Then I close every single door
But barely can I wait

Blue autumn let me down
Leave me scattered on the ground
And decide
Won't you fly away from me

It's over when it's gone
But barely can I demand
My feelings ever mean a thing
If i beg you what would I be

Blue winter let me down
Leave me frozen on the ground
And decide
Won't you fly away from me

Blue summer bring me round
Bathe in circles from the sun
To decide
Don't you fly away from me
