Step outside
And feel the warmth
Much stronger than inside

Crazy path
That lead you here
Creates a place to hide.

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

Frightened eyes take in the view Forgetting how it feels Look around, believe yourself The world outside is real

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

Gave myself to you

No one can deny

I'm still waiting 'til you be

So content to feel

Can't despise myself

I'm still waiting 'til

Leave me break my heart

Can't control the pain

I'm still waiting 'til.
