

Welcome
Or should I say goodbye
It's a question how close we are apart
Are you going back home after this show
Or leaving for the wild?
And when you're passing the wardrobe
What will you take?
Your worn out hat of hopes
Or someone else's attractive furs to make it through
The playgrounds of your life

All is shown
All shut down
All the world is gone
All the pieces came together
Finally
But not too late
All is shown
All shut down
All the world is gone
Just pretend that I'm not there
Make your choice
I love you anyway
I love you anyway

(I love you anyway)
(Just make your choice)
(Pretend that I'm not there)
(All the world is gone)
(All the world is gone)
(Just take it, just take it)
(And you'll make it)
(Alright, yeah)
(Ride on)
(Ride on)
All is shown
All shut down
All the world is gone
All the pieces came together
Finally
But not too late
All is shown
All shut down
All the world is gone
Just pretend that I'm not there
Make your choice
I love you anyway
I love you anyway
