Alphaville

Baby Baby - what do I do? Playing my tune for you, playing my tune for you, just to get you in the mood Everybody's going to Hollywood, you're driving me mad, but I'm smiling to the crowd instead A lot of money is at stake, this is hit and that's a fake

This is what you mean to me, this is what they all should see, make a make-up in a foolish style Telling the truth by making a big? Lie when I come, I come but nothing's at ease Breaking up the whole is a modern disease, maybe you think tomorrow's just a joke
It's a joke after joke after joke after joke

R: My love, everything's an interview and nothing's really new and everybody's looking for clues
And you know what to do with a clue my love
I get ready for the show, they're waiting and they will never go
This night is just to go-o-o-o, and it's only for show

Dig that deal and be a millionaire, drinking cocktails in the stratosphere
Getting jetlagged with my business-friends in these supersonic wonderlands There's a shadow on the graphic display, first he's smiling then he's fading away
Maybe he thinks tomorrow's just a joke, it's a joke after joke after joke after joke

R: My love, everything's...
