Sometimes it seems the night will last forever Sometimes it seems that darkness always falls A dark star woke you up and with a dark star You go to bed You're sinking slowly into the deep You wonder if you ever touch the ground Where you would walk through sparkling spheres, On strangest drugs and without fears You feel just like a little girl And all your dreams lie frozen on the moon You left them ther some time ago But it ain't true that you don't need them anymore You are so beautiful, you are so very beautiful Don't give up, kill the pain, don't start crying again Here it comes, here it comes The golden handshake of life You are so beautiful, you are so very beautiful Keep the faith, stop to fight And walk out into the night You're so strong, yes you are Reach out for your star.... Even those who are afraid to live They're dying some day

Sometimes it seems that silence crawls all over Sometimes it's hell inside and hell out there Your heart is nothing but a haunted place Is that you in the mirror? You're all alone inside a world Full of confusion and of strange alarms And though your courage left you long ago It doesn't mean that you don't have it anymore
