

Into The Stars

Alphawezen

i am sleeping within fragile skin dreaming of a brighter flame to wake within am i free to be here now that's everything i have why do we lose ourselves to fires on the shelf we could feel ourselves and how we break our shells you give me the frameless shape i'm moving in full of you is everything i'm burning in i am free to be here now

i'm fading
into the stars tonight
right into your toxic light
to swallow up your sky
and burn like firebirds
so bright
