

Every Other Freckle

Alt-J

I want to share your mouthful
I want to do all the things your lungs do so well
I'm gonna bend into you like a cat fits into a beanbag
Turn you inside out and lick you like a crisp packet

You're the first and last of your kind
(Pull me like an animal out of a hole)
I wanna be every lever you pull
And all showers that shower you
Gonna paw, paw at you
Like a cat paws at my woolen jumper
Be your Minpin
And borrower of handsome trivia

Ooh, devour me
Aaah
Lou Lou, let the cover girls sing
Hey!

(Do, do do do, do do do do ...)

All handclaps, you will clap
(Let me be the wallpaper that papers up your room)
I wanna be every button you press
And all mouths that surround you
Yes, I'm gonna run around you
Like a cat rolls around saw-dusted patios
I'm gonna kiss you, like the sun browns you

Ooh, devour me
Aaah, devour me
Ooh!
Aaah!
If you really think that you could stomach me

I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
I want every other freckle
