

Darkened Highlight

Altaria

How he was a howling in the forest of moonlight
The fallen hero looking for the reason to some lies
And the lightning sets the universe a flame
And the the rainbow send
The treasure of our dreams

To live forever more...

Fading lights remind me of the misery
And the darkened highlight
They disguise with all the ancient mystery
And the darkened highlight finds a way to shine

From the dungeons of the night
A dreamer realise to late
The race is just begon
And the thunder earth, the rain awaits

Destination, no-one knows
With a voice inside screams GO
Pack your bags and leave again
.....

To live forever more...

Fading lights remind me of the misery
And the darkened highlight
They disguise with all the ancient mystery
And the darkened highlight finds a way to shine

Face of evil laughing out the destiny
Of the darkened highlight
While the night gives birth to dreadfull fantasies
And the darkened highlight finds a way to shine
Finds a way to shine

Fading lights remind me of the misery
And the darkened highlight
They disguise with all the ancient mystery
And the darkened highlight finds a way to shine

Face of evil laughing out the destiny
Of the darkened highlight
While the night gives birth to dreadfull fantasies
And the darkened highlight finds a way to shine
