

In the Deep

Alter Bridge

I am still as the moment I hold in my hand
I can't let go
Here and now, time and space, the illusion so grand
And then I know

Every breath leads the way, my escape, it is never far

When I fall in the deep
With you I see that heaven's never far
Let it wash over me
The truth I seek, let it lift my heavy heart

So alive, every rise, every fall brings me back
To where I must go

All that I'll ever need is this moment to get me by

When I fall in the deep
With you I see that heaven's never far
Let it wash over me
The truth I seek, let it lift my heavy heart

I'm slowly fading in your arms
I'm slowly fading in your arms

When I fall in the deep
With you I see that heaven's never far
Let it wash over me
The truth I seek, let it lift my heavy heart
