

Take the Crown

Alter Bridge

So sorry
So sorry
But you're going down

Under the lights and thunder
We come to life
You roll the bones and wonder
What fate decides

The screams, the frenzy
Reveals the worst
As hearts of many
Hunger to be first

Let's state the obvious right now
We'll be victorious
We'll take the crown
Just like we've always done before
You're digging in
We'll step around
Cause in the end
We will stand our ground

Blood on the diamond flowing
Tears fall tonight
There is no sense in hoping
You won't survive

The sound and fury
Will shake the earth
As cowards scurry
Knowing we've returned

Let's state the obvious right now
We'll be victorious
We'll take the crown
Just like we've always done before
You're digging in
We'll step around
Cause in the end
We will stand our ground

You will bow down in the end
Know our reign we will defend

Young and impossible
As we stake our claim
In the league of unstoppable
Your resistance in the end will be in vain

Let's state the obvious right now
We'll be victorious
We'll take the crown
Just like we've always done before
You're digging in
We'll step around
Cause in the end

We will stand our ground

You're going down but we're so sorry

You're going down but we're so sorry
