

Waters Rising

Alter Bridge

Now is the end of time
A fool and his legacy are gone
His pride found another way to make sure it all went wrong
Awaken a new day, our fears have come to pass
And this time, they're gonna last
This time they're gonna last

Don't let me drown!
Don't let me drown!

Now all of the fields are burning
It blocks out the Sun
I see all the water rising
To drown everyone

This is the season, we tear our rivals down
This circle of tyrants will end us all right now
The Earth has provided the means to burn it down
Well, don't you see it now?
Well, don't you see it now?

Don't let me drown!
Don't let me drown!

Now all of the fields are burning
It blocks out the sun
I see all the water rising
To drown everyone

This is tomorrows' way to end our days
Watch as the clouds,
they gather now to wash us away

Water is rising coming to wash it all way
There's no denying we were so wrong
Water is rising coming to wash the filth away
There's no denying we are so lost

Staring down the end of time, every fear is realized
Crying out it's much too late,
nothing we can do to save
For the time has come

Now all of the fields are burning
It blocks out the Sun
I see all the water rising
To drown everyone

This is tomorrow's way to end our days
Watch as the clouds,
they gather now to wash us away
