

Body Music

AlunaGeorge

Thinking about all the ways to connect me to your world
Not enough, to replace, all the details on mind cold
Like a bad, when the spring has come too early, and I wait
For the summer,

I try to deny that is something more, that I need
Not just an echo
I need to get that high that I felt before
And the greed, just won't let go

Your body is like music, baby
I wanna play it again
Your body is like music, baby
I only feel it when
Our bodies making music baby
I wanna do it again
Your body is like music, baby
I only hear it when we are as one

Soul to the skin, as I run from my patience wearing thin
But my heart has begun a revolution deep within
So I know, but I have to find a way to your embrace
Once again

I try to deny that is something more, that I need
Not just an echo
I need to get that high that I felt before
And the greed, just won't let go

Your body is like music, baby
I wanna play it again
Your body is like music, baby
I only feel it when
Our bodies making music baby
I wanna do it again
Your body is like music, baby
I only hear it when we are as one.
