

Walk Alone Tonight

Aly & AJ

Take a picture
It'll last longer
'Cause I'm one foot out the door

You're a beggar
And I'm a complainer
We just don't fit anymore
I know the words you like to use
I know the words you like to use
Against me

Don't say it's alright
You'll have another thing coming
And I'll say it's a lie
'Cause it'll never get better

Please don't wast your breach
I'm not wasting mine
I've got thing to do
Let's not waste time
Don't say I'm out of my mind
When I walk alone tonight

My reaction opposites attraction
Now I'm two feet out the door
You're gonna need to face it
Just try and erase it
We just don't fit anymore
I know the words you like to use
I know the words you like to use
Against me

Don't say it's alright
You'll have another thing coming
And I'll say it's a lie
'Cause it'll never get better

Please don't wast your breach
I'm not wasting mine
I've got thing to do
Let's not waste time
Don't say I'm out of my mind
When I walk alone tonight

I've been here before
I deserve much more
I know the words
You like to use
I know the words
You're gonna use

Don't say it's alright
You'll have another thing coming

Please don't wast your breach

I'm not wasting mine
I've got thing to do
Let's not waste time
Don't say I'm out of my mind
