

Dangerous

Alyssa Reid

First you found out
She said it's not what it looks like
Then she freaked out
So you said baby it's alright
That should've been it
But you let her back in

You sat at home
While she called you a liar
Said you weren't alone
Lit your prius on fire
She was feelin' hurt
So now you walk to work

Did she tell you it was love?
Tell you it's the first time
Tell you it's the last time
Have you had enough?
Have you fallen for her blue eyes?
Fallen for her white lies
That should've been it
But you let her back in

Oh, she's a little bit dangerous, dangerous
I said oh, she's a little bit dangerous and you can't resist
Pull you in leave you wanting more
Leave your heart lying on the floor
Oh, she's a little bit dangerous

Stole your AMEX
Dropping cash like she earned it
Put you in debt
So you made her return it
You told her it was wrong
But she kept the Louboutins

Did she tell you it was love?
Tell you it's the first time
Tell you it's the last time
Have you had enough?
Have you fallen for her blue eyes?
Fallen for her white lies
That should've been it
But you let her back in

Oh, she's a little bit dangerous, dangerous
I said oh, she's a little bit dangerous and you can't resist
Pull you in leave you wanting more
Leave your heart lying on the floor
Oh, she's a little bit dangerous [x2]

She said I'm never gonna tell another lie
He said if you love me better look me in the eye
She said if you leave me then I'm gonna make you cry
He said, she said

Oh, she's a little bit dangerous, dangerous

I said oh, she's a little bit dangerous and you can't resist
Pull you in leave you wanting more
Leave your heart lying on the floor
Oh, she's a little bit dangerous [x2]

Never let her go, never let her go

Pull you in leave you wanting more
Leave your heart lying on the floor
Oh, she's a little bit dangerous
