

Lonely Heart

Alyssa Reid

Don't stop, dumb as a beat
And you don't look back before you leave
Did you know I was thinking about you
Did you take her home?
Were you messing around?
I'm so stuck in my headspace
While you bring her back to your place
I know I should let you go
But I'm still not ok

I'm, I'm trying to find out what I was doing wrong
And I, I was blind, it's me who should be moving on

But I'm out of touch, out of mind with my lonely heart
Out of my head all the time in my lonely heart
Getting tired of running circles through my mind like
Oh, oh, oh lock me out my lonely heart

I know I should go
But I just can't help blowing up your phone
And I know I'm not alright
Tryin to figure out where you are tonight
I'm so stuck in my headspace
While you bring her back to your place
I know I should let you go but
I'm still not ok

I'm, I'm trying to find out what I was doing wrong
And I, I was blind, it's me who should be moving on

But I'm out of touch, out of mind with my lonely heart
Out of my head all the time in my lonely heart
Getting tired of running circles through my mind like
Oh, oh, oh lock me out my lonely heart

Since you walked out my life with my lonely heart
Ooo, you cut like a knife in my lonely heart
I'm getting tired of running circles through my mind like
Oh, oh, oh lock me out my lonely heart

But I'm out of touch, out of mind with my lonely heart
Out of my head all the time in my lonely heart
Getting tired of running circles through my mind like
Oh, oh, oh lock me out my lonely heart

Since you've walked out my life with my lonely heart
Ooo, you cut like a knife in my lonely heart
I'm getting tired of running circles through my mind like
Oh, oh, oh lock me out my lonely heart
