

Radio Silence

Alyssa Reid

I was afraid of the dark,
Radio silence, radio silence
I know you're here but I can't speak
Frozen inside its radio silence but I still hear you breathe...

The walls are closing in on this, I'm losing my light
Scream is getting loud and now I'm losing the fight
Now my head is spinning, come and save me tonight
Don't let me go

All the broken promises are always the same
Dreaming in the lies until you can't take the pain
Hiding in the shadows, feel it's all that you know
Gonna let you go

For the first time,
I can't breathe
I can't speak
I can't speak

I was afraid of the dark,
Radio silence, radio silence
I know you're here but I can't speak
Frozen inside its radio silence but I still hear you breathe...

Can you see me crawling on the edge of the line?
Do you hear me calling? No, don't leave me behind
Everything I know it makes me cold as I go
But I won't let go

Everywhere I turn I'm always seeing your name
The world begins to blur and everything stays the same
Every minute gone makes me run out of hope
Don't let go

For the first time,
I can't breathe
I can't speak
I can't speak

I was afraid of the dark,
Radio silence, radio silence
I know you're here but I can't speak
Frozen inside its radio silence but I still hear you breathe...

I'm holding out my hand
And did you ever there's monsters in my bed?
I'm asleep but not in dead

I was afraid of the dark,
Radio silence, radio silence
I know you're here but I can't speak
Frozen inside its radio silence but I still hear you breathe...

Radio silence, radio silence
I know you're here but I can't speak
Frozen inside, it's radio silence but I still hear you breathe
