

Suffocating

Alyssa Reid

Into the dark, afraid of the light
I lost myself like I lost my mind
You crossed your heart and you crossed the line
You're out of love and we're out of time
You said stay with me forever
I know we'll always be together
Now I'll never make it out

You were mine, now you're gone
And you don't even care
I was blind, I was wrong
Now I'm fighting for air
Slowly fading, suffocating
Why am I holding on
When you're not even there
I was blind, I was wrong
Now I'm fighting for air
Slowly fading, suffocating

I want to forget and leave you behind
I wanna kill what's left, the pain inside
You said stay with me forever
I know we'll always be together
Now I'll never make it out

You were mine, now you're gone
And you don't even care
I was blind, I was wrong
Now I'm fighting for air
Slowly fading, suffocating
Why am I holding on
When you're not even there
I was blind, I was wrong
Now I'm fighting for air
Slowly fading, suffocating
