

Fashion Pack (Studio 54)

Amanda Lear

It was night and suddenly I felt like dancing
I took a cab to show me to the disco scene
He said: o.k., you wanna see those crazy people Hastling at the door to get into Studio 54

Who is in? Who is out?
Tell me, tell me, tell me
Who is in? who is out?
Famous and trendy

In people always have to smile in Vogue they only travel by Concorde doing things you can't afford

They are the fashion pack
people you see in the magazines
they are the fashion pack
they're always smiling in their limousines

They only come out after dark got to keep on their trendy track
they are the fashion pack

I was in and everybody was "travolting" the fashion queens the models and the movie stars Andy snapping, Margaux dancing with Scavullo Liza dancing on the floor and Bianca walking through the door

Who is in? Who is out?
Tell me, tell me, tell me
Who is in? who is out?
Woman's wear Daily

Rock stars sniffing while Marisa's posing Paloma's counting her paintings the models of Zoli flirting.

They are the fashion pack
people you see in the magazines
they are the fashion pack
they're always smiling in their limousines

They only come out after dark
got to keep on their trendy track
