

I Don't Like Disco

Amanda Lear

I love a song of contradiction today the facts tomorrow fiction but you're a song without surprise with a vacant look in your eyes i wanna feel it in my soul a little bit loud and rock n roll i wanna hear the wind but i get the rain again again your rhythm is boring

it sounds the same
boom boom boom
driving me insane

i bang to the vbeat of a different drum
you gave me the moon but i need the sun
i don't like disco

I love a sound so sad and sweet that makes me wanna move my feet but you have got no melody and i'm afraid it's not for me i've got to find a song I like to touch my heart night after night and i don't wanna hear again again again
