

Puzzling Rapunzel

Amanda Somerville

Leave me in the shelter
Of my shadded room
But don't leave me
For too long, my love
Leave me but know
I'll be waiting for you
I'm puzzling Rapunzel, I know

I've let my hair down,
But don't think you noticed
Just go and leave me open, my Love

But the breeze blowing in,
Well, it gives me a shiver
Your presence here could really Calm me down

Time will keep on rolling
While I keep on waiting here
And believe me,
I have patience of steel

Just know in your heart
That your hesitation
Speaks volumes to me
Of how you feel

I could take this feeling and stash it away
As I count the ways that we both lose
I could bare all my heart, but would you appreciate that?
After all I am here and still wait

Time will keep on rolling
While I keep on waiting here
And believe me,
I have patience of steel

Just know in your heart
That your hesitation
Speaks volumes to me
Of how you feel

Now I have this fear and,
Oh, how I hold it in here
how I long for shelter
Of your arms

How I yearn to enflod
And be the world to you
Come out and be my love...
Be my love...

Time will keep on rolling
And believe me,

I have patience of steel

So don't be a fool
if your hesitation
just show me the way
That you feel

So don't leave,
But know I'll be Waiting for you

I'm a puzzling Rapunzel, I know
I'm a puzzling Rapunzel, I know
I'm a puzzling Rapunzel, I know
