Skyline

Amaranthe

Resurrect me from enlightened circles Crawling, I am undisguised Disconnect me from this human circus Searching for the undefined

Every morning is a new beginning Burning in a sea of cries Lift em up to meet my execution Hiding from what I deny

Irreversible, I am on fire
Unenforceable
Take me higher
Irrevocable, I can hear you cry

Wait and see
This is my ecstasy
And I will never abandon this life
(Let go of this life)
Conscience clean
But where's my dignity
Unless the sky's the limit, I fly

Please recess me from the world that's calling Driven to insanity Stand corrected you can hear me roaring Yearning for tranquility

Every story is a brand new era

Face it - I am falling down

Please delete me from the new world order

Screaming from the underground
