

Would You?

Amber Pacific

If there's a reason to believe in what I'm feeling
Didn't have to go, didn't have to go
I broke a promise to be honest now I'm leaving
All I've ever known, all I've ever known

An empty space inside, a cold and sleepless night,
I can't, I cannot get you off my mind

Would you give it up if it meant our love was enough to carry you?

Would you face the truth if it meant that you would have to follow through?

Every moment that we made, fades away it's not too late
To turn the other way

I put my heart in being sober but it's over
Never meant to, I never meant to hurt you
I saw this coming now you're running and I'm wishing
I could hold you, something that I can't do

An empty space inside, a cold and sleepless night,
I can't, I cannot get you off my mind

Would you give it up if it meant our love was enough to carry you?

Would you face the truth if it meant that you would have to follow through?

Every moment that we made, fades away it's not too late
To turn the other way

Would you give it up if it meant our love was enough to carry you?

Would you face the truth if it meant that you would have to follow through?

Every moment that we made, fades away it's not too late
For you to change
Oh, I'll turn away
