

When It Fits

Amber Rubarth

I was feeling a bit off cue
My friend asked "Where are you?"
I said I don't even know the day
And I wandered around some more
Gathered some scrapes and sores
Gathered some flowers along the way

And you know that it comes and goes
You can release your hold
Cause when it fits right it takes no time to know

And when things don't go your way
And you're running against the grain
And you've run out of things to do
Try and remember this
Maybe it's just practice
For something better suit for you

And you know that it comes and goes
You can release your hold
Cause when it fits right it takes no time
When it feels this right, you won't think twice
When it fits it takes no time to know
