See You Soon

Amber Run

And I know you feel smaller now Oh in more ways than one but there are things that you do girl Oh like nobody else

Like how your hair falls down your back Oh your eyes crease when you laugh Oh how you don't walk but you bounce Oh how you don't cry but you gasp

Let that be a lesson to you That there's depth where there's distance too And all that you can do Is say I'll see you soon I'll see you soon and I'm aware of your problems and all the things that you've done all that I've know is that you burn like the sun

Oh how your hair falls down your back Oh your eyes crease when you laugh Oh how you don't walk but you bounce Oh how you don't cry but you gasp

Let that be a lesson to you That there's depth where there's distance too And all that you can do Is say I'll see you soon

Is say I'll see you soon I'll see you soon No I'll see you soon No I'll see you soon

Let that be a lesson to you That there's depth where there's distance too And all that you can do Is say I'll see you soon Is say I'll see you soon
