You Are The One

Amber

I want to show you that you are the one Mmmm let me tell you baby
You are the only and you are the one
I need to tell you how I feel for you

It feels so good to look into your eyes
And watch my dreams become real
Feel so secure and warm inside
I want to tell you how I really feel
We spent all our time living on a dream
Boy it's so divine, making love to you

All down my spine you send a gentle chill When I've got you on my mind We've got the key to all the precious things But I'm so glad that you're mine Counting every day until you're near again I will promise you to do the best I can

Please me Special love all over me Your tender love is all in me Don't you break my heart
