

You're Sent From Heaven

Amber

Right on time somebody passed my way
And suddenly there was that smile baby
Like a sunset
You open up my eyes
So that everything was clear
And to my big surprise
I'm feeling so alive, I'm feeling so for real
Something beautiful, inescapable has happened to me

Chorus:

You're sent from heaven
I know that you're from heaven baby
You're sent from heaven
I know
(I need you right here 24/7)
Oh

Fantasies are running to my mind
Unspoken words that love'll say
You give me wings and you make me fly
You touch my hand and I can touch the sky
I lost my faith and you give it back to me
Magic every time cause I feel so right when you look at me

Chorus

You're the light in the dark
Every time I am around you you fill up my heart
Without you I'm a woman alone
Holding on to nothing but our love is strong
We're holding on

You're sent from heaven
Yeah, yeah, yeah yeah
You're sent from heaven
Oh I can see it, I can see it, I can feel it
I can see it in your eyes, see it in your smile
All the things you do if you only do
I can see it in your eyes, see it in your smile
All the things you do you're heaven
