Amberian Dawn

"It's not a dream and it's not your imagination."

I'm lying in my bedroom restless at nights
And feeling someone's lying next to my side
I hear a heavy breathing - someone's next to me
And watching me
Sweet dreams now come to me
Your flesh is weak

Chorus:

I sense and know it's presence yet I'm asleep
Someone is preying upon my sleeping mind
Whispering
Calling, desiring
And squeezing with all its might
It's trying to take over and choke me
A nightmare seizes in a freezing grip
I feel cold fingers running taking a grip
This spirit lurking in my sleep
And giving in I'll sleep forever more
Sweet dreams now come to me
Your flesh is weak

Chorus

"The flesh is weak
Walk in the spirit
And ye shall not fulfill
The lust of the flesh"
