

Dear To Me

Amel Larrieux

As gravity is to every human being
As the earth is to the trees
I couldn't drift away from your love because it's Implanted in my memory

If there was some uncertainty

Your dear to me
You know who you are
You're always here with me
You know who you are
You're dear to me and i hope you know who you are

Watching you slumber draen to the splendor
Of your face
When it's completely still
Standing under the flood of your laughter
Into every cell in me you spill

After you everything else is weak

It's out of , out of my hands you see
